vertical lines designate:
1. character break
   a. separates information
     during individual
     character construction.
2. word break
   a. separates information
     during word construction.
3. page break
   a. separates information
   during page construction.

unrelated data can be placed inside letters, words, or pages without affecting original information by entering break punctuation at start and finish points.

DRYBEDOC░Alphabets allow characters to change names without altering size, shape, color, or appearance.

Accomplished by assigning the 26 independent designs a different alphabet order.

Original DRYBEDOC░Alphabet
